

Sheila Marie M. Tabordan

UI/UX Designer | Social Media Manager

About Me

Hi. My name is Sheila. I'm from Lucena City, Philippines. I have a passion for creativity. I enjoy writing, reading novels and psychological books and doing graphic designs. Currently, I'm a social media manager of my own art/digital design business. I have been managing my Digital arts Instagram page since 2020. Additionally, I made several visual novel games, and I once created an MBTI Test Website out of curiosity and interest. My passion for social media, writing, content creation, graphic designing/illustration and front-end web designing has inspired me to pursue a full-time career in web designing and social media marketing (SMM).
